

Wonderware Integration Solutions

Object Technologies CEM, Inc. is certified by Wonderware to provide software engineering solutions for industrial automation projects utilizing InTouch Human/Machine Interface software and factory suite of office automation software. Our industrial automation group provides system architecture, software development, system integration and sustaining services for the FactorySuite product line. Below is a brief overview of these products and services we support:

Products

FactorySuite 2000 is a integrated suite of software for industrial automation. It is a component-based HMI system that gives users access to a full package of automation tools including:

- Visualization (InTouch)
- Factory Database (IndustrialSQL Server)
- Downtime Tracking and Production Monitoring (DT Analyst)
- Resource and WIP Tracking (InTrack)
- Flexible Batch Management (InBatch)
- Pure Windows NT-based Control (InControl)
- Internet/Intranet Visualization (FactorySuite Web Server)
- Connectivity

Services

- Conceptual Development/Functional Specifications Generation
- Integration of Instrumentation, Control and Graphics
- Driver Development
- API Development
- Custom Application Development
- System Installation
- System Training
- Troubleshooting
- Monitoring, Technical and Engineering Support

Mission

Object Technologies CEM's mission is to deliver a full circle of exceptional information and automation technology services that will assist our clients in achieving and exceeding their business objectives. We accomplish this by focusing on the individual needs of our clients and by maintaining superior quality standards for all services.